RIGGERS MEETING.—AT A MEETING OF THE RIGGERS MEETING.—AT A MEETING OF THE RIGGERS MEETING.—AT A MEETING OF THE RIGGERS MEETING TOOK WORK, which was held at Warren Hall, on Friday Utcheber 22d, to discuss the late past resolutions of forced by the ship masters and morehants of this city. In regard to our wages, which was previously granted us by a number of those genelemen and boas riggers of the city, we then demending two dollars per day, but subsequently reduced, by miner merchants co-operating with the stevedores, to tourteen shillings per day, in order to obtain their grinding tax of twelve and a half cents per day. Now, as we find it utterly impossible to exist on their late proposed rate of wages, we therefore take this method of respectfully acquainting them with our shall determination. Be it therefore.

Kesolved. That we, as a body of riggers, somsider ourselves fully entitled, by the valuation of our labor, to the amount of wages demanded, and, by some merchants and boss riggers, now paid. We now hereby bind our elves, one to each other, o support and maintain, at all hazards, the above standard of wages. And be it further.

Ricaclved. That we subscribe our names in unity, friendship and brotherly felling, to each other, for the mutual benefit of all; and as that can only be done by unity of purpose, we now stand as some man ready to maintain our demand in a respectable, but stendiast and peaceshle manner.

Signed by three hundred and eighty, following the occupation of riggers.
